

The Revd John Christopher Atkinson

129 Years of Goldhanger Parish Magazine

There has been a Parish Magazine since 1895 when the Revd. Frederick Gardner started it shortly after being appointed Rector at Goldhanger. In all those years there have only been a few breaks in publication, most notably during both World Wars.

All articles (ideally in PDF or plain text in an email) to be submitted by midnight on the 15th of October, and advertising (including For Sale and Wanted) by midnight on the 13th of October please. Please contact the editors if you have any questions about your article.

Magazine Editors:	Stephen & Chris	788369 parishmag@goldhanger.org.uk
Advertising (for Magazine & Goldhanger Website)	Carol	advertising@goldhanger.org.uk

For Sale or Wanted - To list your items in the magazine the minimum donation is £1 per advert. If you would like to donate more it would always be welcome.

Please note: We cannot guarantee the delivery date of your magazine. Please bear this in mind when advertising functions at the beginning of the month.

This magazine is run entirely by volunteers and relies on donations and advertising to fund it. It costs approximately £1 per issue to produce. We print about 350 copies each month.

Donations can be made at any time. Cheques made payable to Goldhanger Parish Magazine please - or you can go to the Goldhanger website and make a donation online.

Current and previous issues of the magazine are available in glorious technicolour from the Goldhanger website at: www.goldhanger.org.uk.

The Revd John Christopher Atkinson

John Atkinson was a well known author of many books and articles in the nineteenth century. He was born in Goldhanger in 1814, the son of a Goldhanger curate, also confusingly called John Atkinson and his wife Martha, the daughter of Richard Causten of Mundon Hall. We don't know where the family lived in Goldhanger, but could have lived in any of the Rector, the Revd. Leigh's nineteen houses in Goldhanger. Perhaps they lived in the Old Rectory next to the Church.

He would have initially attended the village school which was either the "Dame School" held in the Old Rectory or in the Pit Cottages on the Maldon Rd., as the village school as we know it today wasn't built until 1875. He was then educated at Kelvedon school, and St John's College, Cambridge from where he graduated in 1838. He was ordained as a deacon in 1841 at Brockhampton in Herefordshire, and became the Rector of Danby in Yorkshire in 1846, remaining there until his death in 1900.

An entry in the Oxford Dictionary of National Biographies describes him as an energetic antiquary with wide interests who started by writing children's books and then published works on folklore, ornithology, and dialect studies. This month's cover has a picture of him with five of his early children's books.

Miller Christy, another well known local author, wrote this about John Christopher Atkinson in his 1890s Birds of Essex book...

The days of John Atkinson's boyhood were spent around Goldhanger, Great Wigborough, Little Wigborough, Peldon, Tollesbury and Mersea, and he thus had unrivalled facilities for becoming intimately acquainted with the birds frequenting that part of the Essex coast, opportunities of which he made excellent use. Many of his notes on the ornithology of our coast may be found in the early volumes of the Zoologist. In short, the first twenty-four years of Mr. Atkinson's life, apart from university, were spent in Essex.

He has written numerous popular works on Natural History, including: The Nests and Eggs of British Birds, a charming little book, which has gone through several editions, and is still one of the most popular works on ornithology in the English language; few, if any, books have in their day done more to popularise that science. A threepenny edition of it appeared in 1885. It contains numerous reminiscences of his early days, spent among the birds on the Essex salttings.

Ministry Team Message

One of our favourite stories from the Bible must surely be The Good Samaritan from

Luke's gospel. The Samaritan traveller showed both pity and compassion. His pity for the battered man who had been robbed and beaten was perfectly understandable.

Though besides pity he displayed compassion. This compassion was demonstrated in caring action.

The journey between Jerusalem and Jericho is seventeen miles. It was a dangerous journey not least for the rugged terrain and the robbers who were merciless.

While members of the clergy ignored the plight of the victim, the Samaritan leapt into action. He bound the sufferer's wounds, put him on his own donkey, took him to an inn and took personal care of him. He left money with the proprietor should the Samaritan need further care and still further promised to pay for any future care should it be needed!

The background to the story is that there was animosity between the former tribes of Israel going back to when there was a split between the unified twelve tribes. Sadly the Middle East is still in conflict.

In St Peter's church Great Totham is a stained glass window featuring the story of The Good Samaritan. It was given by the tenants of William Philip Honywood in his honour. Fittingly William had been extremely generous to his tenants. The Honywood family once owned Great Totham village and school. This school, renamed The Honywood, is now owned and maintained by our church and in regular use.

May the story of the courage and generosity of The Good Samaritan continue to inspire us.

Paul Smith, St Peter's Church Gt Totham

Taking action for nature recovery, today, together

– a new vision for our natural spaces

We can all benefit from a bigger, better and more connected approach to nature recovery.

The Essex Local Nature Recovery Strategy has been drafted for public consultation and includes mapping of nature recovery opportunities, biodiversity priorities and key actions.

Everyone's voice matters

Scan the QR code to take part and provide your feedback and input.

Your views can help shape how we protect our county's natural landscapes and habitats for future generations.

The draft strategy is also available to view in libraries across the county: Basildon, Braintree, Brentwood, Canvey Island, Chelmsford, Clacton-on-Sea, Epping, Grays, Harlow, Maldon, Prettygate (Colchester), Rochford, Saffron Walden and Southend-on-Sea (The Forum).

Essex County Council

Public Consultation Open for Essex Local Nature Recovery Strategy

More than ever, wildlife and their habitats are under threat for survival. It's time for us to all play our part in assisting nature recovery in our county. The Essex Local Nature Recovery Strategy (LNRS) provides a new vision for our natural spaces, and the draft strategy is open for public consultation for your input and feedback.

Introduced by the Environment Act in 2021, the strategy identifies opportunities for the creation of new habitats, which are most likely to provide the greatest benefit for nature and the wider environment. It has been created with input from landowners, farmers, environmental NGOs, charities, local authorities and members of the public.

Your participation is crucial for delivering a robust strategy which collectively we can use to work towards nature recovery, shaping a thriving natural environment for Essex. To take part in the public consultation, please visit <https://consultations.essex.gov.uk/c-e/ltrs-public-consultation>

KEEPING MUM

Walter Goodfellow, the well meaning vicar of the parish of Little Wallop, is so obsessed with writing the perfect sermon that he is oblivious to his wife Glorias dalliance with her brash golf instructor Lance; neither does he notice that his daughter Holly has a different boyfriend every week, and his young son Petey is the whipping boy for the school bullies.

Gloria feels her life is spiralling out of control. Her loveless marriage and her adolescent kids escapades she prays for salvation. Enter Grace: a sweet grey haired old lady, the charming and discreet new housekeeper, who has her own unique definition of keeping house and a very unusual way of solving problems

Hello

I'm Pete Kennedy father of the late Duncan Kennedy whose funeral happened in August and the wake was held at Goldhanger Village Hall where over 400 people turned up. He was brought back to Goldhanger after his birth in Colchester on 17 September 1988. He went to Tolleshunt D'arcy school then onto The Plume School in Maldon. He did his work experience at Colchester Cycles and spent all of his adult life working with and riding bikes. He was much admired and loved by many and his sudden unexpected death came as a great shock. We want to thank the many people in the village and beyond who helped make the wake in the village hall such a wonderful occasion doing the cooking, preparation, delivering and clearing up afterwards. It's impossible to get round to thank everyone as there were so many but they know who they were and we send a massive thank you to everyone.

Vend24 started out as your local 24 hour convenience machine selling fresh produce from butchers meats to wholesome vegetables and delicious pies, located at Millbeach seaside resort Maldon Essex.

Our love for good quality food has expanded even more that we now want everyone to be able to order and receive quick local delivery. Our delivery days will differ but we are trying to aim for Wednesday - Saturday.

Free local delivery and no minimum order

We can also quote for events where buffets would be required and have a wholesale price for restaurants and like minded businesses.

Recipe of the month

Blood soup

Preparation time

less than 10 mins

Cooking time

40 minutes

Serves

Serves 4

Ingredients

- 540g jar sliced beetroot (or fresh cooked), diced
- 1 onion, peeled and diced
- 2 cloves garlic, peeled and crushed
- 1 tablespoon rapeseed oil
- 1 tablespoon of sugar
- 600ml hot vegetable stock
- Crème fraîche to taste
- Salt and pepper to taste

Method

1. Heat the oil up in a large frying pan and add the onions and garlic and fry over a gentle heat for 15 minutes or until very soft. Add the diced beetroot and mix well, before adding the hot vegetable stock. Simmer for 20 to 25 minutes before taking off the heat and allowing to cool slightly.
2. Liquidise the soup with a hand held immersion blender or in a food processor until smooth. Add a tablespoon of sugar and stir well.
3. Season to taste before reheating the soup over a low heat until it is hot, but do not allow to boil.
4. Serve immediately with crusty bread or croutons, and a swirl of crème fraîche on the top. Recreate the webbed look by putting a dollop of crème fraîche in the middle of the bowl and use a skewer or cocktail stick to pull the crème fraîche out, in a web design.
