129 Years of Goldhanger Parish Magazine

There has been a Parish Magazine since 1895 when the Revd. Frederick Gardner started it shortly after being appointed Rector at Goldhanger. In all those years there have only been a few breaks in publication, most notably during both World Wars.

All articles (ideally in PDF or plain text in an email) to be submitted by midnight on the 15th of September, and advertising (including For Sale and Wanted) by midnight on the 13th of September please. Please contact the editors if you have any questions about your article.

Advertising (for Magazine & Goldhanger Website)	Carol	advertising@goldhanger.org.uk

For Sale or Wanted - To list your items in the magazine the minimum donation is £1 per advert. If you would like to donate more it would always be welcome.

Please note: We cannot guarantee the delivery date of your magazine. Please bear this in mind when advertising functions at the beginning of the month.

This magazine is run entirely by volunteers and relies on donations and advertising to fund it. It costs approximately £1 per issue to produce. We print about 350 copies each month.

Donations can be made at any time. Cheques made payable to Goldhanger Parish Magazine please - or you can go to the Goldhanger website and make a donation online.

Current and previous issues of the magazine are available in glorious technicolour from the Goldhanger website at: www.goldhanger.org.uk.

Early postcards showing local residents

Our legacy of postcards and photos is an important source of information on what the village was like around 100 years ago and for this reason they have frequently been included in these local history articles. Postcard collectors however know that the most sought after postcards are those that show street scenes combined with people and modes-of-transport, and this is reflected in the price at which these cards change hands.

On this month's front cover and below are a collection of cards showing recognisable places in the village together with local residents. The photos were taken at the time when the cameras were large wooden boxes on tripods with a glass-plate negative that needed several second exposures to obtain good quality pictures. This meant those involved had to stand completely still and it seems children were ideal and willing volunteers who are often seen standing to attention.

It would have been harder to include horses, dogs or cattle as they would not have kept still, however they do appear in the distance on some views.

There are two ways we can date the pictures: the style of lettering and the numbers show on the front, and the postmarks on the reverse, although in our archive we have only the views and very few postmarks. All the postcards here date from between 1900 and 1920.

Ministry Team Message

The Power of the Bible.

Do you ever think the Bible is irrelevant in the 21st Century? Is it just a book of stories from ancient times with no relevance to the modern society? Let's challenge that view.

I have just finished my first year of three at 'Vicar school' to become a Priest. I have been studying theology which has been both formation, challenging and fascinating. Probably my favourite unit has been the study of the Psalms. The Psalms is a book hymns in the Old Testament that covers every possible emotion, from ecstatic joy to the depths of despair. There are 150 Psalms, and they are an important part of the daily services. A useless fact, if you say Morning Prayer and Evening Prayer everyday you will cover all the Psalms in a month, if you were a medieval monk, you would say all in a week due to the number of services you would attend each day.

All this may be interesting, but this does not make the Psalms useful in 21st century. So, are they? I have discovered they play a really key role in expressing the inexpressible in our daily lives.

Have you ever been in a place and have been overcome its beauty? There are so many places in our country and abroad that leave me speechless, Psalm 104 is a hymn to God the Creator. What about those times when life is overwhelming and hopeless? Words can't express how low you are feeling or how angry you feel against the world or God? There are Psalms of desolation which put into words what you are unable to, life can't get much worse than the picture painted in Psalm 88. Psalms also give great comfort, most of us are familiar with Psalm 121, The Lord's my Shepherd, often used during funeral services. Use the power of Google to read them.

As part of my studies, I had to read various theological opinions on the Psalms and I found Bruggemann really interesting, he categorised the Psalms into three types, orientation, disorientation and reorientation. (Brueggemann The Psalms, the Life of Faith' Fortress Press 1995). If life is fine (orientation) then there are Psalms for that (Psalm 104). If life is completely hopeless and everything feels disorientated, Psalm 137 (some will recognise this, made popular by Boney M in the song, By the Rivers of Babylon). If you are looking for comfort and want to feel reassured of God's love for you then my favourite is Psalm 121. This is a Psalm of reorientation.

I really like this idea of reorientation, for some of us, maybe we have never thought about God and the Christian faith but do feel the need of reorientation in our lives. For others, maybe we used to be orientated to God, but are no longer, maybe its time for some reorientation. For some, life is difficult, and God seems distant.

However you feel, there is a Psalm to put words to your feelings.

My favourite Psalm 121, one of reorientation:

1-2 I look up to the mountains;

    does my strength come from mountains?

No, my strength comes from God,

    who made heaven, and earth, and mountains.

3-4 He won't let you stumble,

    your Guardian God won't fall asleep.

Not on your life! Israel's

    Guardian will never doze or sleep.

5-6 God's your Guardian,

    right at your side to protect you—

Shielding you from sunstroke, sheltering you from moonstroke.

7-8 God guards you from every evil,

    he guards your very life.

He guards you when you leave and when you return,

    he guards you now, he guards you always.

Penny-Anne Adams (Ordinand, Little Totham Church)

Recipe of the month

Orzo risotto with lemon and fresh oregano

Preparation time

less than 30 mins

Cooking time

10 to 30 minutes

Serves

Serves 2

Ingredients

- 2 tbsp olive oil
- 1 large banana shallot, peeled and finely chopped
- 1 large garlic clove, finely chopped
- 225g/8oz orzo pasta
- 650ml/23fl oz hot vegetable stock
- small handful chopped fresh oregano
- 25g/1oz unsalted butter
- ½ unwaxed lemon, finely grated zest and juice
- sea salt and freshly ground black pepper

Method

1. Heat the oil in a heavy-based saucepan over a medium–high heat and gently fry the shallot with a generous pinch of salt for 5 minutes, or until just translucent. Add the garlic and fry for a further minute.
2. Add the orzo to the pan, stirring until all the pasta is coated.
3. Add a quarter of the stock and turn down the heat to medium–low. Continue adding the stock a quarter at a time, stirring regularly until the pasta has absorbed all the liquid and is tender but still has a little firmness at the centre. You may need to add a splash more water, or you might not need to use all the stock.
4. Stir in the oregano, butter, lemon zest and juice, to taste. Season with salt and pepper and serve immediately.
